Welcome to Aqua, our pelmet collection. Historically known as 'Cornice Boards', these window treatments were designed to be used as a framework above a window to conceal curtain fixtures. Stemming from the practical and useful, Byron & Byron endeavour to create beauty.

Available in an array of finishes, these stunning pelmets can be adapted for bay windows and are available in custom made sizes and finishes. Hand crafted in England, made from the finest timbers, and ranging from the traditional to the contemporary in design, we hope you enjoy this collection as much as we do.
